MICROWAVE NEWS

P.O. Box 1799 Grand Central Station • New York, N.Y. 10163 • (212) 794-9633

MICROWAVE NEWS, a monthly newsletter devoted to the subject of non-ionizing radiation (0-300 GHz), will begin publication this winter. As the unique source of accurate and timely information on key issues in this complex and controversial field, MICROWAVE NEWS will be an important resource for those in business, law, government, defense, science, and medicine.

The newsletter will be edited by Dr. Louis Slesin, a well known expert on non-ionizing radiation. In-depth analysis as well as concise coverage of current developments will appear in each issue. [For a sample list of topics, see reverse side.] Technical information will be translated into clear and direct English.

The subscription price for one year of MICROWAVE NEWS is $165.00 in the United States and Canada (foreign: $200.00). A special pre-publication rate of $150.00 (foreign: $185.00) is available if you subscribe now.
